FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Member Services

Abundant benefits become available when you choose Interfaith FCU

Interfaith Federal Credit Union has been serving people of faith since 1948, this will always be our focus. We value what clergy, churches, faith-affiliated groups, and individuals of faith bring to the world. It is our honor to serve this community.

Choosing a credit union says something about who you are, and what you value. Credit unions are not-for-profit institutions created to help people, it's that simple. Our members become part of something larger, united in principles to make a positive difference. The more you and your family utilize Interfaith FCU the more you become part of a strong financial foundation supporting the expansion of faith in the world.
