GCFA's Denominational Roles and Responsibilities

Your Apportionment Dollars at Work

According to The Book of Discipline, "General agencies are important to our common vision, mission, and ministry" (¶ 701.2). The General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) was created by General Conference to fulfill many duties including:

Coordinating and administering financial resources and policies

Reviewing General Agency annual budgets and performing audits

Submitting a quadrennial budget to General Conference

Safeguarding the legal interests and rights of The United Methodist Church

Maintaining a group tax exemption for United Methodist entities

Providing administrative resources to enable the fulfillment of the Church's mission

Gathering and maintaining data and statistics relevant to the denomination

Supporting the Episcopacy through administrative support

Providing an insurance program to service the needs of the Church.

UMC SUPPORT
